Road Conditions, Closures on Community Hotline

The 6th Area Support Group has a dedicated line to provide you with current road condition reports, delays and closures. The Road Condition Report Hot Line can be reached by calling 0711-729-2474. This recording is updated as conditions warrant. Please refrain from calling the military police desk for this information because the large volume of calls being received is severely hampering their ability to conduct regular military police activities and other emergency operations. Thank you for your cooperation and understanding.

JOB CORNER

Interested in a Life of Crime?

The United States Army Criminal Investigation Command is currently accepting applications from enlisted soldiers who are interested in changing their MOS and becoming CID Special Agents. No soldier joins the Army as a CID Special Agent. All Special Agents are recruited from the ranks of active duty soldiers.

If accepted, you'll attend the 15-week CID Special Agent Course at the United States Army Military Police School. Upon successful completion you'll change your MOS to MOS 95D (CID Special Agent), and after only two years as a CID Special Agent you'd be eligible to apply to become a CID Special Agent Warrant Officer.

If interested, call the Special Agent-In-Charge of your local CID office for qualification requirements and assistance in preparing your application. Don't wait! Your life of crime is waiting for you!

Opportunities at ACS
